UCLA PUBLIC POLICY DEPARTMENT
OPEN POSITION: PART-TIME SUMMER LECTURERS (NON-SENATE)
SUMMER 2014

The Department of Public Policy at the University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA), invites applications for a part-time lecturer position (Non-Senate) with primary responsibility for teaching an introductory undergraduate course in Public Policy for Summer Session 2014. The six-week terms include Summer Session A (June 23-August 1, 2014) and Summer Session C (August 4-September 12, 2014).

The UCLA Public Policy Department offers an undergraduate minor and a Master of Public Policy degree.

We are looking for applicants who can teach Introduction to Public Policy, a gateway course to the undergraduate minor in public affairs.

Requirements
Applicants with a Ph.D. preferred in Public Policy, Economics, Political Science, Urban Studies or other related disciplines. Applicants who are advanced to candidacy or equivalent will be considered.

Application Procedure
Send materials via e-mail attachment to Stacey Hirose, Department Manager, <stacey@luskin.ucla.edu>:
- Cover letter
- Curriculum vitae
- Teaching evaluation summaries
- Names and contact information of two references
- A syllabus of the proposed course

Applications will be accepted until positions are filled. However, to ensure fullest consideration, all applications materials should be submitted by FRIDAY, March 11, 2014 to Stacey Hirose (stacey@luskin.ucla.edu) or to:
