

Meyer Luskin

Chairman and CEO
Scope Industries

Meyer Luskin left his investment counselor business in 1961 to become President of Scope Industries, a company in the food waste recycling industry, and currently serves as its Chairman and Chief Executive Officer.

He is an investor and director in a number of private and public companies and currently serves as Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Los Angeles Orthopaedic Hospital. He served as Chairman of the Santa Monica UCLA Medical Center and Orthopaedic Hospital. He also serves as a director for Alliance for College Ready Public Schools, UCLA Foundation, Jazz Bakery, UCLA Luskin School of Public Affairs, UCLA Luskin Center for Innovation, OSI Systems, Inc. and Myricom, Inc.

Luskin graduated from Roosevelt High School in Boyle Heights. While attending UCLA, he served two and a half years in the U.S. Air Force before receiving a bachelor of arts degree in economics in 1949. He earned his master of business administration from Stanford University in 1951. He is married to Renee Luskin and they have three children and four grandchildren.