

Applied Planning Research Project (APRP) Proposal Form, Fall 2020

Student Name: _____

This is a course designed to guide students through finalizing topics, selecting clients, developing scope of work and client student agreements (CSA), completing research design and literature review portions of applied planning research project, and collecting data.

Students will NOT be permitted to stay enrolled in UP 205A until they have completed this form and submitted it to Danielle Maris Lacob at danielle@luskin.ucla.edu. Forms must be submitted by first day of class at the latest.

Project Topic: _____

My research will answer the following question: _____

How will your experience in the program prepare you for answering the research question? Please list the classes you took, internships you had, etc.

What methods will you use to answer the research question? _____

What are the literatures you have reviewed or will review to prepare for your research (list specific readings below)? Students are encouraged to look at course reading lists from their first year classes.

Potential Client: _____

APPROVALS

Faculty Project Advisor:

Print Name

Signature

Date