UCLA Luskin School of Public Affairs Department of Urban Planning UP 205A: Applied Planning Research Project

Applied Planning Research Project (APRP) Proposal Form

Student Name:
This is a course designed to guide students through finalizing topics, selecting clients, developing scope of work and client student agreements, completing research design and literature review portions of applied planning research project, and collecting data.
Students will NOT be permitted to stay enrolled in UP 205A until they have completed this form and submitted by the second class session. A copy should also be emailed to the Graduate Advisor
If the student is having difficulty finding a client, they need to meet with the Graduate Advisor in the second week of the quarter.
Project Topic:
My research will answer the following question:
How will your experience in the program prepare you for answering the research question? Please list the classes you took, internships you had, etc.

What methods will you use to answer the research question?
What are the literatures you have reviewed or specific readings below)? Students are encouragist year classes.	will review to prepare for your research (list aged to look at course reading lists from their
Potential Client:
A DDD OVA I G
APPROVALS
Faculty Project Advisor:
Print Name
Cionatura	Doto
Signature	Date